

CHARLIE WIENER

What happens when a baby boomer happily residing in the closet, deep in the recesses of his mind filled with sixties memorabilia, wakes up to find he has been married several times and is the father of two daughters voting age? Where did the good times go? What's a mortgage? How did his old nemesis ... REALITY, find him? CHARLIE WIENER joins the hilarious struggle each night live on stage as he rants and harangues against that which would make him give up the life he has chosen and have to find adulthood and a regular paycheck.

Through three musical albums, headlining gigs in comedy clubs and colleges throughout this great land of ours, hosting two television shows, WIENERVISION and OFF THE WALL, and appearing on such shows as A & E's Evening At the Improv, CHARLIE WIENER has proven over and over again that there is nothing more hysterical than an old hippie coming to grips with everyday situations we've had to deal with all along.

CHARLIE WIENER is considered one of the top comedians working the club circuit for the past ten years. For one of the most freakishly wild and comical evenings you will ever have, with all the subtlety of a howling monkey, it's CHARLIE WIENER to the rescue. You'll find out that your life isn't really so bad.
