

Zydeco Dependents

Zydeco Dependents is comprised of seasoned musicians who are deeply rooted in the musical styles of south Louisiana - Zydeco, Cajun and Swamp blues. Cajun music is the traditional music brought to Louisiana by the French Immigrants exiled from Acadia in the 18th century. Zydeco music is the music of the Creole people that was created by the blending of Cajun and the early forms of Delta blues and R & B. the focus of Cajun music is the upbeat two steps and melodic waltzes with Cajun French lyrics.

Led by the button accordion, Zydeco Dependents captures the unique qualities of these irresistible musical forms and delivers it to its audiences with a high energy performance that appeals to people of all ages.

Laissez le bon temps roulez! (Let the good times roll!)

Past Presenters Include:

Six Flags Ohio, Lakeside Assoc., Lancaster Parks and Recreation, Akron Rib and Music Festival, Ashland Summer Concert Series, WRUW International Folk Festival, Parade the Circle, Cleveland Metro Park's Earth Day Celebration, Kent State Univ., Kenyon College, Fat Fish Blue, Cleveland, OH, Little Mountain Folk Festival,